

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Integrated Ag Services Hires John Mizro as Agronomic Consultant, Expanding Offerings to New York

Milford Center, Ohio (April 11, 2024) – Integrated Ag Services (IAS) announced the addition of John Mizro to their team as an agronomic consultant. Mizro will work exclusively in New York to expand IAS service opportunities to growers. In this position, he will be responsible for implementing technology to provide expert advice and increase overall yield for clients.

“We are excited about the hiring of John Mizro due to his expert knowledge of the agriculture industry and ag technology,” said Evan Delk, president of IAS. “John will make a great addition to our expanded team and services to the state of New York, and we look forward to helping more growers improve their field operations.”

Mizro received his bachelor’s degree in animal science from Cornell University and is a certified crop advisor. He is an expert in precision ag technology that increases efficiency, maximizes yield and increases profitability. He currently resides in Auburn, New York with his wife, Lisa, and his three sons Jacob, Luke and Kolby.

Integrated Ag Services (www.integratedag.net) is a trusted leader in providing reliable, unbiased, customized agronomic information to allow farmers to make the best possible decisions on their farms. Their services include one-on-one consulting, precision ag services, soil sampling services, high definition (HD) soil sampling services and agronomic scouting services.

###

For more information, contact: Angela Krile, Krile Communications for Integrated Ag Services, 740-974-3948, angela@krilecommunications.com